

THE HORNER FOUNDATION

Philadelphia, PA: 2019-2021 Funding Stream Out of School Time: Mid to Large Size Organizations

Total Expenditure: $600,000 USD over two year grant cycle

Target Grant: $100,000 USD over two years

Leads: Terry & Ann Marie Horner

Partner: Arbor Foundation

Strategy: In Philadelphia, The Horner Foundation has committed to supporting Out of School Time¹ programs in the City of Philadelphia working directly with underserved youth aged 10-19. For our 2019 funding cycle, we will continue our focus on OST, with an increased emphasis on larger multifaceted OST organizations. If you match the criteria listed below, we encourage you to complete our short 2-page Letter of Intent.

Types of Organizations that should apply:

- Not for profit organizations serving youth located in Philadelphia County
- Emphasis on underserved youth aged 10-19 (middle and high school)
- Minimum organizational revenue at least $500,000 USD in most recent fiscal year
- Operating as a 501(c)3 for a minimum of five years.
- Demonstrated strong staff leadership and management capacity
- Established an active organizational growth strategy
- Organization should serve at least 500 youth per year in ongoing OST programming (as opposed to one-time events)
- Organization must have interest in improving their capacity to collect, understand, and use data for ongoing improvements and stronger results
- Preference given to organizations that are or have participated in Scattergood BECI or RISE programs
- Multifaceted OST organizations are defined as those who:
 - Offer a variety of youth programming, which could include sports, art/culture, STEM or vocational training.
 - Exhibit good retention and attendance matrices
 - Incorporates positive relationship building between youth and with adult mentors or peers to develop a sense of confidence and courage

¹ Out of School Time (OST) is a supervised program that young people regularly attend when school is not in session (www.cdc.gov/healthyschools/ost.htm)
